Dear Homeowner,

CONGRATULATIONS. Cinnamon Homeowners Association Inc. has been approved by the State of Florida, Department of Economic Opportunity. All legal public records have been updated.

The last phase of the process has been completed: The Final Documents have been sent to each homeowner of record. These are important documents which you should safe-keep and be passed on to the next homeowner should you sell your home. They outline all the rules and regulations as approved by the State of Florida and is binding to the homeowner, their guests and tenants.

A copy of the full package is available on the Cinnamon Homes Website at:
